TREBLE CHOIR

Lauren Verney-Fink is the Choir Director and music teacher at Ridgefield High School. Prior to coming to Ridgefield, she spent 11 years at Fairfield Warde High School directing 4 curricular choirs, leading a pop a cappella ensemble, and teaching the music electives including Vocal Studio, Music Theory, Piano Skills, and Music Technology. In 2020, her Fairfield Warde High School Bel Canto Singers were selected as a Showcase Ensemble for the CMEA In-Service Conference. Additionally, Lauren has twice had the honor of guest conducting the Dutchess County, NY Junior High All County Choir and the Charter Oak Music Festival High School Mixed Choir in Colchester. Before teaching in Fairfield, Lauren taught middle school choir in Westchester County, New York and Fairfax County, Virginia. She holds degrees from James Madison University (Bachelor of Music) and the University of Hartford's Hartt School of Music (Master of Music Education). Lauren is very involved in the CT-American Choral Directors Association as Membership Chair after finishing 3 years as High School Repertoire & Resources Co-Chair. She also served as the Professional Development & In-Service Conference Chair on the CT Music Educators Association Executive Council from 2014 to 2016. When she is not at school, Lauren loves playing with her young sons (Rowan and Bram), spending time with her husband Evan, and taking Zumba classes.

MIXED CHOIR

Colleen Thompson is the current Director of Music for the Darien Public Schools and the former choral director at Simsbury High School in Simsbury, CT. She is a frequent clinician and guest conductor, working with choirs and music educators at all levels. As the middle school choir director at Henry James in Simsbury, her Select Chorus performed at the 2011 ACDA Eastern Division conference and the 2012 OAKE National Conference. Her high school chamber choir, Simsbury Singers, performed at the 2015 and 2018 CMEA Conference and the 2019 NAFME Eastern Division Conference in Pittsburgh. Colleen has presented workshops for OAKE, ACDA and CMEA, and has worked with teachers in CT and MA on common-assessment projects. She received a BME from Baldwin-Wallace University, a MMed with Kodály certification from The Hartt School, and a Sixth Year in Educational Leadership from the University of Connecticut. Colleen was the Simsbury Public Schools Teacher of the Year for the 2017-2018 school year, and was a semi-finalist for the 2017-2018 CT Teacher of the Year. She was named the CT ACDA Choral Director of the Year in 2019. She lives in Darien, CT with her husband Carl and son Cowen.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Ben Griffin is an active low brass musician across the Northeast, performing on trombone, bass trombone, tuba and euphonium. He started his college career at University of Massachusetts, Amherst, leaving in 1999 to become the low brass soloists for the original London West-End, First National Tour and Broadway productions of the Tony Award winning show Blast!. Settling in New York City in 2001, Ben perform with notable artists and ensembles, including Keely Smith, Darlene Love, Isaac Hayes, the Blues Brothers, Big Apple Circus, the Village Vanguard Orchestra, Charles Mingus Big Band, The Awakening Orchestra, Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, Bobby Sinabria Big Band and many more, including television appearances on Conan O'Brian and the Today Show. It was during this time Ben earned his Bachelors of Jazz studies at the Manhattan School of Music. In 2005 Ben was awarded the position of Assistant Principal Trombonist of the U.S. Coast Guard Band, where he performed with the Concert Band, Brass Quintet and Dixieland Jazz bands and was featured as a soloist on national and international tours. In 2010, Ben returned to civilian life and enjoys freelancing and teaching across New England, including with the BT/ALC Big Band, John Almark Jazz Ensemble, Jeff Holmes Big Band, Hartford Jazz Orchestra, New England Jazz Ensemble, Galvanized Jazz Band and various shows, recordings and pop acts. He has taught trombone and jazz history at University of Rhode Island, Emerson College, Manchester Community College and currently is the instructor of Jazz Trombone at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

Division. He also teaches trumpet and coaches chamber music at The Hartt School in the Collegiate Division. Dan is also Conductor of the Charter Oak Brass Band.

Additionally, he is active as a trumpet soloist and chamber musician. Dr. D'Addio has concertized throughout the United States and Europe performing on concert series in New York, Chicago, Boston, Washington DC, Vienna, Geneva, and Salzburg. As a chamber musician, he served as an Artist-in-Residence at the Bay View Music Festival. As a soloist, Dr. D'Addio has won several international and national competitions including the 1981 International Music Competition in Geneva, Switzerland, the 1980 International Trumpet Guild Student Solo Competition, and the 1984 Queens Philharmonic Concerto Competition.

Formerly a member of Brass Ring, Dr. D'Addio performed concerts throughout the United States and Europe and participated in chamber music master classes at major American universities. Dr. D'Addio was instrumental in the commissioning and premieres of several Pulitzer Prize winning composers including Jacob Druckman, Ned Rorem, David del Tredici, and Christopher Rouse. As a member of Brass Ring, Dr. D'Addio was a prizewinner at the 1989 Philip Jones International Brass Chamber Music Competition in Barcs, Hungary. He participated in chamber music residencies at the University of Bridgeport and The Hartt School. Dr. D'Addio recorded with the brass quintet on the Crystal label.

Orchestrally, Dr. D'Addio performed with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, the Pro Musica Chamber Orchestra, the Flint Symphony Orchestra, Orchestra New England, the Ridgefield Symphony Orchestra, the New Haven Symphony Orchestra, and the Hartford Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. D'Addio is Professor Emeritus of Music at Central Connecticut State University He has served on the faculties of The University of Georgia, Otterbein College, The Neighborhood Music School, Western Connecticut State University, the University of Bridgeport, Branford (CT) High School, and has assisted in the trumpet studios of The University of Michigan and The Ohio State University. He has conducted master classes at major universities and colleges throughout the United States and has served as an adjudicator and clinician in a variety of musical and educational settings.

Daniel D'Addio holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from The University of Michigan, a Master of Music degree from The Ohio State University, and the Bachelor of Music degree from The Hartt School at the University of Hartford. He has also studied at the Hochschule für Musik und darstellende Kunst in Graz and Vienna, Austria and the Scola Cantorum in Basel, Switzerland as a Fulbright Scholar.

Daniel D'Addio is a Yamaha Performing Artist and a Wedge Mouthpiece Endorsing Artist.

CONCERT BAND

Dr. James Chesebrough has been the conductor of the Winchendon Winds since 2018. He received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio, and subsequent conducting degrees from the University of Connecticut. His teachers included Jeffrey Renshaw, Peter Bagley, and Rodney Winther. As a graduate student, he served as the assistant conductor of the University of Connecticut Wind Ensemble. From 1983 - 2001 he worked as instructor of low brass at Plymouth State University in Plymouth, NH, and was visiting conductor of that school's Symphonic Band in 1999. He was the Visiting Music Director for the Yale University Bands in 2005-2006 and became a full professor and director of the Concert Band at Keene State College from 2006 until his retirement in 2018. He now conducts the Winchendon Winds, a professional ensemble in Winchendon, MA, and two historic 19th-century groups- the Newmont Military Band, and the Yankee Brass Band.

For twenty-six years Dr. Chesebrough was a Band Director in the public schools of Ohio and New Hampshire. He conducted numerous high school festival ensembles across New England, most significantly, the New Hampshire All-State Band in April of 2011. Other professional experiences include adjudicating state instrumental and vocal auditions, presenting clinics at music conferences, and serving on the New Hampshire Music Educators' Association Executive Board as Junior High Festival Chairperson and State President.

In 1998 the New Hampshire Band Directors' Association honored Dr. Chesebrough as the state's "Outstanding Band Director", and he received an "Outstanding Music Educator Award" from the National Federation of State High School Associations in 2015.

As a trombonist, Dr. Chesebrough has performed with the American Trombone Choir in St. Petersburg, Russia and Hong Kong, China. At International Trombone Festivals he has performed with the Weekend Warriors Trombone Choir in Helsinki, Finland and the William F. Cramer Trombone Choir in Utrecht, the Netherlands, Aarhus, Denmark, Paris, France and Barcelona, Spain. He has performed with the New Hampshire Music Festival Orchestra and many other ensembles throughout New England.

Dr. Chesebrough has published articles in the Journal of Band Research, in Volume 4 of the series Teaching Music Through Performance, Volume 2 of the series Teaching Music through Performance in Beginning Band, and in Quarter Notes: The Journal of the New Hampshire Music Educators Association. In 2003, Dr. Chesebrough and Dr. Jeffrey Renshaw prepared a performance edition of the "Second Regiment Connecticut National Guard March" by D. W. Reeves, which was published by Ludwig Music.
